

I fully agree with the ARRL proposal, because it is a fair proposal for those people who have hearing and learning disabilities, and have been turned away from the amateur radio service and the joy of operating on the HF frequencies due to the morse code requirement.